History:

The Miller Tree Inn was originally the home of Eli and Winifred Peterson. The house was built on their farm homestead in about 1916, after their children had mostly grown up. Eli never lived in this house, as he passed away before the house was complete. Winifred continued to live in the house until she sold it to Dr. Edwin Liebold and family in the late 1940's or early 1950's. The house was then sold to the Chamberline family in the 1970's and then in 1984, Ted and Prue Miller purchased the house and turned it in to the Miller Tree Inn. Bill and Susan Brager took from the Millers in 1998 and purchased the inn in 1999.

Most of the homestead, with the exception of the house and a few acres, was purchased by their grandson, Oscar Peterson in the 1940's. Oscar and his wife, Wilma, still own the land on two sides of the Miller Tree Inn property.

Location:

The Miller Tree Inn is located on the edge of a residential section of Forks. It is just past City Hall, and the Forks Athletic and Aquatic Center and Forks Community Center are located across the street. The inn is bordered by pasture land on two sides.

The Miller Tree Inn is an easy walk to the center of Forks.

From Forks and the Miller Tree Inn, it is easy to explore the west side of Olympic National Park, fish in the many world class rivers, or take in the Twilight sights.

Owners/Innkeepers: Bill and Susan Brager

Rooms:

Description:

The Miller Tree Inn Bed and Breakfast has 8 guest rooms and is located six blocks from the center of Forks, WA. The Miller Tree Inn was built in about 1916 as a farm homestead and has been a bed and breakfast since 1984. The structure has three floors with guest rooms on each floor. In addition to the 8 guest rooms, the Miller Tree Inn has 3 common areas and a wrap around front porch where their guests are invited to relax, read, or visit with other guests. We are a friendly, comfortable, and quiet place where guests can rest while preparing to enjoy the wonders of our scenic area.

Food and Beverage:

The Miller Tree Inn offers a full breakfast each morning. Guests are greeted with a buffet of fresh fruits, juices, cereals, yogurts, and pastries. Coffee carafes are on each individual table and there is a hot water station for making tea, cocoa, and hot cider. Once guests are seated, they are offered the cooked breakfast which varies by the day.

In the afternoons and evenings, guests are invited to help themselves to the ice, hot beverages, cookies, fruit and snacks that are available all day from the self service bar located in the dining room.

The Miller Tree Inn does not have a full service restaurant, but there are a few to choose from within walking distance.
